Springdale to Van Buren Train Ride on November 2nd– Several coaches will caravan to Springdale AR after the luncheon to participate in this outing which is a round trip ride to view fall foliage from the comfort of a Vintage Excursion Train. This is an eight-hour trip includinga three-hour layover in Van Buren to allow time for shopping, eating and sightseeing in this historic town which was incorporated in 1845.

We will have a report on this trip at the December luncheon.

Happening!

- Jim and Betty Haynes enjoyed a family trip to Alaska in September.
- Peggy Pitezal said that November is ‘family birthday month’ with several members celebrating.
- Marilyn and Robert were treated to a tour of Larry and Joanna’s lake house which has undergone an extensive remodel!!
- Peggy and Geoffrey Alexander said they will be celebrating their daughters (plural) birthdays this month.

See you next month.
